DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Information Disclosure Statement

The IDS document has been received and made of record.

Specification

The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Drawings

Figures 12-15 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the examiner does not accept the changes, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

Claims 3 and 4 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form.

Claims 3 and 4 define manufacturing techniques, and not further structural limitations of their respective parent claim.

As far as the claims recite positive limitations, the following are rejections are made.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2627

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

1. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over the acknowledged prior art of figures 12-14.

With respect to claim 2, the discussed acknowledged prior art anticipates the claimed elements.

With respect to the ultimate element – reinforcement portions “formed by ---,” as far as the examiner can ascertain, there are such portions and are appropriately bent.

Under 103 considerations, if applicants can convince the examiner that such portions are not folded up, then the examiner takes Official notice of bending a straight edge (edge of the clamp plate) in an upward direction, since bending/folding upwards in the manufacturing arts is well known and Official notice is taken thereof.

2. Claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the art as applied to claim 2 above, and further in view of acknowledged prior art to JP 11-054949.

Art Unit: 2627

The ability of bending/folding peripheral edges to increase the strength thereof – see the submitted abstract thereof.

The number of turns inherently increases the strength, hence it is obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to coil, increase the # of turns, of the peripheral edges in order to increase the strength thereof.

3. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the art as applied to claim 2 above, and further in view of Official notice.

With respect to claim 5, the presence and use of winged/flanged grommets to reinforce annual openings is considered well known, and Official notice is taken thereof.

It would have been obvious to modify the base system as relied upon above with respect to claim 2 and provided an additional annual reinforcement component, such as a winged/flanged grommet, motivation is to increase the strength of the opening

Conclusion

4. Claims 6 and 7-8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. Claim 1 is allowed.

The limitations of claims 6 and 7 are present in claim 1, and none of the cited prior art teaches/discloses such in this environment.

Satoh is cited as illustrative of protruding components/sections/parts – see figure 7 thereof.
